Ten little firemen

Ten little firemen,
Sleeping in a row.
Ding, dong, goes the bell
In a wink they go
Off, to the engine, ho, ho, ho!
Using the big pipe so, so, so!
When the fire's out,
Home they go,
Back to bed,

All in a row

Signal lights

'Stop' says the red light
'Go' says the green
'Get ready' says the amber one,
Twinkling in between,
That's what it says and
That's what it means
We all should follow it,
Even the queen!

Season of the Rain

It is the season of the rain.
When frogs and worms peep out again

Snails they slowly crawl.
While we hear the raindrops fall,
Children wear raincoats too,
So they don't get wet right through,

Sail paper boats so small
While we hear the raindrops fall,
We see the lighting in the sky,
A rainbow up so high,
We hear the thunder call,
While we hear the raindrops fall.

4) Action Songs :

Road

Road is not the place to play,
During the night, during the day;
Cars and buses come and go,
Some are fast, some are slow;
Right and left, you must see and go,
On the zebra crossing so;
Never throw the litter one on the road

And always follow the traffic code.

Let us go a planting

Let us go and plant a seed,
Plant a seed. Plant a seed,
Let us go and plant a seed,
On a sunny morning.
Let us daily water it,
Water it, water it,
Let us daily water it,
On a sunny morning.
Then a little shoot will show,
Shoot will show, shoot will show
Then a little shoot will show,
On a sunny morning
Then the green leaves will grow,
leaves will grow, leaves will grow,
Then the green leaves will grow,
On a sunny morning
Then the lovely flowers will bloom,
flowers will bloom,
flowers will bloom,
Then the lovely flowers will bloom,
On a sunny morning

One day an elephant wandered into a forest in search of friends. He saw a monkey on a tree.

“Will you be my friend?” asked the elephant

Replied the monkey, “You are too big. You can not swing from trees, like me.” Next elephant met a rabbit. He asked to be his friends. But the rabbit said, “You are too big to play in my burrow!”

Then the elephant met a frog. He asked “will you be my friend? How can I?” asked the frog.

“You are too big to leap about like me.”

The elephant was upset. He met a fox next.

“Will you be my friend?” he asked the fox. The fox said, “Sorry, sir you are too big.”

The next day, the elephant saw all the animals in the forest running for their lives. The elephant asked them what the matter was.

The bear replied, “There is a tiger in the forest. He is trying to gobble us all up!”. The animals all ran away to hide. The elephant wondered what he could do to solve everyone in the forest. Mean-while, the tiger kept eating up whoever he could find. The elephant walked up to the tiger and said, “Please Mr. Tiger do not eat up these poor animals.” “mind your own business.” growled the tiger. The elephant has a no choice but to give the tiger a hefty kick. The frightened tiger ran for his life. The elephant ambled back in to the forest to announce the good news to everyone. All the animals thanked the elephant.

They said, ‘You are just the right size to be our friend.’

The Musical Donkey

Once upon a time there lived a washerman in a village. He possessed a thin donkey by the name of Udhata. The donkey used to work for the washerman and carry loads of clothes to the river bank by the day. The donkey was not satisfied with the food that was provided by the washerman. In the nights, he usually wandered in the fields nearby and ate the crops stealthily.

One night, he met a jackal and made friends with him. Both of them went out in search of food. Both of them went out in search of food. They found a field full of cucumbers and had them in their fill. They were happy to found a nice place for their food and decided that they would come daily to eat cucumbers. Soon, the donkey started looking healthy and fat.

Once after a tasty meal of cucumbers, the donkey was extremely happy. He was so happy that he wanted to sing a song. He told the jackal about his happiness. The jackal immediately replied "Don't be a fool. If you sing, the guards sleeping in and around this field will wake up and beat with sticks."

The donkey insisted on singing. The jackal again warned him not to do any foolish act. The jackal told him that his voice not so sweet. But the donkey could not stop himself from singing. Seeing the donkey singing, jackal said to the donkey, "Friend, wait a minute, First, let me jump over to the other side of the fence for my safety." The jackal decided to wait outside the garden. On hearing a donkey braying in the field, the guard woke up from his sleep. He picked up his stick lying by his side and rushed out to beat him. The donkey was braying happily, unknown about the danger.

The angry guard found the donkey and beat him. Somehow, the donkey managed to drag himself out of the field to the waiting jackal. The jackal looked at the donkey and said in a sympathetic tone. "I am sorry to see you in this condition. I had already warned you, but you didn't listen to my advice." The donkey realised his mistakes and felt sorry for not listening to the good advice of jackal.

The Sun and the Wind

Once it so happened that there was a beautiful contest between the sun and the wind. It was to see which of the two was stronger than the other.

The wing was very proud of itself and its prowess. It said, “Even the mighty clouds bow before me. They know that I can drive them away.

And the clouds can envelop you. So you are a small thing before me.” The sun said, “It is the time that will tell you which is stronger of the two.”

Soon they saw a man who was wearing a coat. The sun said, “Let us see who makes the man to take off his coat.”

The wind tried first. It blew harder and harder. But the man instead of removing his coat wrapped it more and more. So, the wind failed.

Now it was the turn of the sun to try its strength. It began to shine. It became hotter and hotter.
